

BIRCH CLASS NEWS

Happy New Year! I'm so pleased at the work and effort from Birch class over the first term. You were all amazing! Well done to KS2 who sang at church and to Birch class for your efforts at our grandparents evening. 2019 brings a new year and new opportunities that I look forward to sharing with the class.

As mentioned, last term was incredible!

Firstly, another big shout out to the football team as we managed to get through to the regional competition at St Georges Park for a second year running. As well as football, we also had our Boccia team enter into a competition at Chace Terrace.

We all enjoyed our trips out to the Pantomime which was another thriving success.

This term we've got to look forward to our topic called 'Off With Her Head'. Looking at the Tudor period and specifically Henry VIII.

Tasks will include creating timelines about the period, creating a coat of arms and shield and designing a traditional Tudor house.

Finally, a reminder that the SATs parents meeting is on the 31st January at 5:30pm.

Thank you for everyone's continued support, I'd like to wish everyone a Happy New Year.
